Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

The statements contained herein may include statements of future expectations and other forward-looking statements that are based on management's current views and assumptions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or events to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements. Actual results, performance or events may differ materially from those in such statements due to, without limitation, general economic conditions, including in particular economic conditions in the alstria's core business and core markets, general competitive factors, the impact of acquisitions, including related integration issues, and reorganization measures. Furthermore, the development of financial markets, interest rate levels, currency exchange rates, as well as national and international changes in laws and regulations, in particular regarding tax matters, can have a corresponding impact. Many of these factors may be more likely to occur, or more pronounced, as a result of terrorist activities and their consequences.

GEOGRAPHIC PORTFOLIO SPLIT AND PORTFOLIO VALUE*

as per December 31, 2015

- Headquarter alstria
- Local offices alstria
- alstria's portfolio value

* Including joint venture and prepaid property.

- › alstria achieves critical size in 5 of 6 major German office markets
- › The critical size in each submarket allows to open local offices and to run efficient subportfolios
- › Bigger portfolio diversifies geographical risk and single tenant risk
- › New portfolio volume creates economies of scale and will reduce alstria's cost ratio
- › Higher market capitalisation and better liquidity lead to lower cost of capital

Lower cost than anticipated

Breitwiesenstrasse, Stuttgart

EPRA vacancy rate substantially down

- › Vacancy rate down by 310 bps since announcement of the transaction
- › Leasing business 2015 proves the strength of the combined entity
 - New leases: 76,300 m²
 - Lease extensions: 101,000 m²
- › Disposal of 30,600 m² of vacancy in the course of 2015

EPRA VACANCY RATE in %

as per March 31, 2015

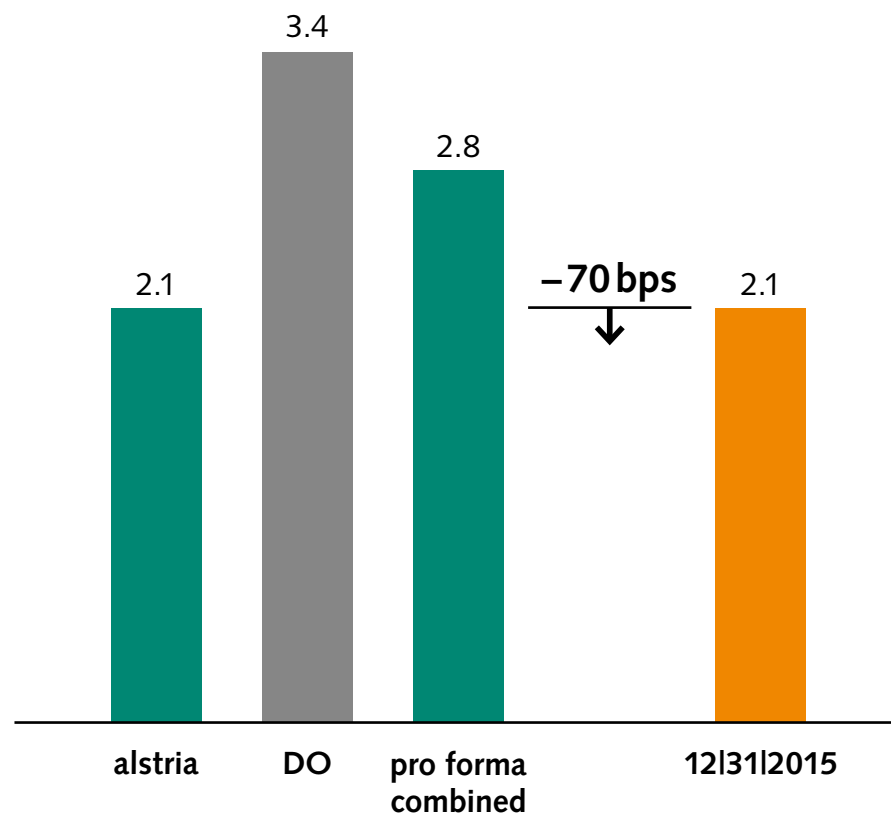

Cash cost of debt down to 2.1 %

- › Pro-forma combined cost of debt of 2.8 % as per December 31, 2014
- › Cost of debt reduced by 70 bps following termination of swaps and issuance of first corporate bond
- › Average debt maturity improved to 4.3 years

COST OF DEBT in %

as per March 31, 2015

LTV down by 40 bps since acquisition

- › Preservation of conservative balance sheet structure was a precondition for any M&A activity
- › LTV of < 50 % maintained despite EUR 81 million devaluation of DO portfolio
- › alstria's LTV decreased by 40 bps compared to pre-announcement date

Transaction is highly FFO per share accretive

- › As indicated at the announcement date of the transaction the FFO per share will increase by > 20 %
- › Most of the operating synergies and savings on financing costs will materialize already in 2016

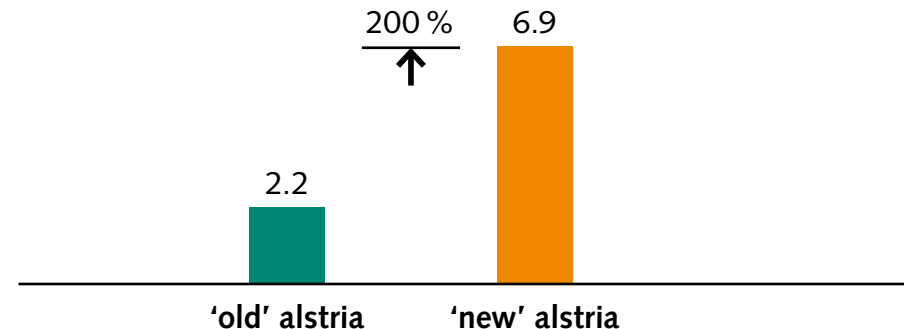

Better capital market profile

- › Issuance of 73.2 million new shares and positive share price performance significantly increased alstria's market capitalisation
- › Better capital market profile led to higher weightings in EPRA indices and membership in the German MidCap index (MDAX)

Transaction
is NAV neutral

- › The comparison of the technical purchase price for the shares of DO (number of shares issued x issue price) and the fair market value of DO equity creates a goodwill and immediately increases the company's NAV
- › alstria follows the EPRA recommendation in terms of goodwill for the EPRA NAV, as well as for the IFRS NAV and wrote off the additional NAV which was created ex-nihilo by the accounting concept, but does not have any tangible reality
